

from the cellar (available by the bottle only)

st huberts 48

yarra valley cabernet merlot 2006

Lifted merlot berry fruits of red currants and cherry are married with the leafy plum notes of Yarra Valley Cabernet. Toasty, cola oak on the nose, becoming more complex with earthy, black olive characters. Medium bodied with a round and even palate, the Cabernet component shows cassis, merlot's offers fleshy red fruits, while subtle oak derived notes of bacon and smoke sit in the background.

yalumba the cigar 52

coonawarra cabernet sauvignon 2009

The Cigar is yalumba's newest release from 'the menzies' vineyard in the heart of the Coonawarra. Crimson red with an aroma of floral violets and lavender underscored by base notes of cherry and dark chocolate. Bright with fresh red fruits of cherries & currants sweeping the palate followed by a finish of the melted chocolate texture of the soft tannins.

peter lehmann the futures 52

barossa valley shiraz 2008

Deep rich red in colour offering the aroma ripe plum, dark chocolate, black olives, and a hint of black currants. A rich velvety palate with a fruit intensity followed by a superb tannin structure and a long balanced finish.

cape mentelle trinders 58

margaret river cabernet merlot 2007

Deep crimson red-purple in colour with a mauve hue. Restrained upon opening the nose yields aromas of violet, blackcurrant, cedar and spice. The plate boasts flavours of cassis, cedar, spice and truffle with a hint of licorice. A lingering finish of balanced dryish tannin truffle and tobacco.

peter lehmann stonewell 98

barossa valley shiraz 2006

The colour is deep red- black leading to a bouquet showing hints of chocolate and dark plums. These flavours extend to the palate which is richly structured with a fine, persistent finish. The 2006 vintage is a wine of great style and power, matured in 90% French oak and 10% American oak for 18mths.

henschke mt edelstone 98

eden valley shiraz 2007

Deep crimson black in colour. A delightfully fragrant bouquet of Anise, plum, sage, and pepper with blackberry and vanilla hints. The plate is lush and fleshy in texture with elegant fine, velvety Tannins.